August 26, 1922.

Miss Helen I. Grandy,
Arcadia, California.

My Dear Miss Grandy:

I am glad to acknowledge your remittance of the 25th, for

$52.80

and to advise I have drawn ballots for 35,900 votes,

which we are retaining in the office to insure against loss in transit.

This is the last day to work for that $500.00 gold prize and I know you realize the importance of securing new subscriptions, not only on account of their large voting strength, but also for the opportunity to add a substantial amount of money to your bank balance.

It is the work put forth now that will mean your ultimate victory on September 2nd.

I shall expect to hear from you soon again and
wish you success,

Very truly yours,

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES.
